PROCEEDINGS

The Ninety-Fourth Annual Session of the Wake Baptist Association and the Forty-Second Annual Session of the Woman's Auxiliary convened with the Riley Hill Baptist Church, Dr. George S. Stokes, our Moderator, the host pastor.

The Association opened at 10:00 A.M. with devotionals led by the Reverends Lemuel Mials and A. A. Anderson. After the opening selection. Brother Mials offered prayer and Brother Anderson led in singing: "Amazing Grace." Brother Anderson also led a topic on the Subject: "How Shall We Escape If We Neglect So Great A Salvation."

Deacon Otha Holden of the Riley Hill Baptist Church came forward, and extended to the body, words of welcome on behalf of the church. The response was made by Deacon Burton of Fuquay Springs.

A verse of "Come to Jesus" was sung after which the Moderator called for expressions from the field. Remarks were made by brother A. L. Morgan of Gethsemane; C. W. McCullers of Oak Grove, C. V. King of Baptist Grove, Gus Williams of Wake Chapel, H. B. Wilder, of Union Grove, Ira Burton, Fuquay Springs and Brother Haskins of Wilson. Remarks were also made by Sisters Albritton of Franklinton, and Hocutt of Middlesex.

All the persons spoke about the progress of their respective churches.

At this time Reverend C. C. Jones was asked to make remarks concerning the status of Religious Education among the churches. He stated that there was a great need for more thorough knowledge of what "Baptist Believe" among our churches.

The time for the Annual Sermon had arrived; the Reverend J. E. Barnes, accompanied by Reverend T. A. Watkins, ascended the rostrum. The music for the occasion was furnished by the Senior Choir of New Liberty Baptist Church of which Reverend Barnes is the pastor. The choir led in singing "Living Below" and "Where Could I Go But to the Lord?" Presentation of the guest speaker was made by Reverend T. A. Watkins.

After making a few brief introductory remarks, Reverend Barnes came forward and announced his text which was taken from the 4th chapter of Joshua 6th verse. "That this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask their fathers in time to come, saying, what mean ye by these stones?" His subject was "Milestones Along the Way." The speaker said that ninety-four years is a long time for an organization to render service. Milestones represent distance traveled from any given point. We should reflect over the distance we have traveled and check the progress this association is making. We should make careful check along the way because there are many adversaries working against us.

Reverend Barnes said that memorials were important. A person representing each of the twelve tribes of Israel was to carry a stone over to Jordan as a memorial. It is a great day when each of us meet Jesus Christ. The speaker gave us a very good message.

Deacons Young and Wilder lifted the offering. The amount was $32.47.

Reverend Watkins reminded the association that we had pledged to take out a life membership in the N.A.A.C.P. Reverend Watkins asked to lift this offering. The amount realized was $41.00.

The benediction was pronounced by Reverend. Barnes.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

In the absence of the program speaker, Mr. Berry O. Wilcox, the Reverend Clyde B. Walton was asked to Moderator over the panel discussion. The subject was "Christian Love." Reverend Walton made a few brief remarks about Christian Love and then presented the first speaker of the panel who was Reverend C. W. Ward. Reverend Ward's particular phase of Christian Love was in the area of church finance. Reverend Ward traced the method of finance through the Old Testament. He said that Abraham gave God one tenth of this earnings as his expression of God's Blessing. Jacob pledged to give God one tenth of his belongings as an expression of his gratitude to God for taking care of him.

Reverend Ward pointed out that we have not been willing to accept God's way to finance our churches. We all owe God a debt, we must pay out love for God and His cause must be the motive in our giving.

Reverend Watkins was asked to discuss "Christian Love" in the area of punctuality. In the absence of Mr. Joseph H. Waters. The speaker said that many of our churches are guilty of not being punctual, regarding time. This is important for the future development of our churches. If we truly love the cause of Christ we will make it central in our lives.

Third and final speaker of the panel was the Reverend O. H. Brodie who spoke on Christian Love in reverence. Reverence means respect for those things which are sacred. This is man's first duty to God. It must be taught in the home, it is a part of one's growth and development. We are to reverence the name of God, we are to reverence the house of God.

All of the panelists gave us something to think about.

The time had arrived for the Moderator's Address. Dr. George S. Stokes came forward and made brief remarks and stated this profound appreciation to all the ministers and churches within our bounds for their continued support.

He further stated that what he had to say would be primarily in the form of recommendations. They are as follows:

1. That Christians strive to obtain more of the riches of God's Grace through daily Bible study and prayer.

2. That winning souls to Christ, and a life consecrated and dedicated to his service will be the ceaseless practice of the church.

3. That each pastor will conduct, or see that one is conducted in his church or churches; a training course that will inform the membership of the Baptist Church Covenant and all methods of church progress.

4. That parents will take more time in training our children at home, to be God-fearing and loving, mannerable, polite, truthful, honest, industrious and thrifty, thus causing the youth to grow into a good citizenry.

5. That we as believers in Christ will carry good will, fellowship, brotherly love, and hold to the belief of and PRACTICE the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

6. That this Body, and all Christians, in the perlious times will exercise steadfast faith in Jesus Christ, pray earnestly and STAY humbly before the Almighty God for Divine guidance in all things.

7. That the pastor and church conduct a Daily Vacation Bible School during the year.

8. That the church will teach its membership to purchase homes, live more economically and ever strive to be law abiding citizens.

9. That every citizen will exercise his or her high privilege and duty by voting for those candidates who will in office, earnestly strive for the common good of all the people.

10. That the pastors and deacons of this Association stir themselves, rise up and take the lead; do not wait, arrange for a training course in each and every church of this Body. Don't wait for the Church School to do the work of the pastor and the entire church.

(a) There are able Teachers ready and waiting to be called by us at the Baptist Headquarters and The Baptist State Convention (White) in Raleigh.

11. May I, therefore, under God, urge each Deacon in each church, certainly the chairman, to see to it, encourage, inform and constrain each member of the church to give more money and give regularly for the support of the total program of the Baptist Church. Give as God has PROSPERED us. The church then will grow stronger spiritually, financially, and intellectually.

12. I recommend that each church hold at least two regular preaching services per month where and when it is practical to do so. Increase the salary of the pastor and other workers in the church to a justifiable and satisfactory sum of money.

(a) DEACONS, this job, to a large extent, is on you. Acts 6:3 — "Appoint over this BUSINESS."

(b) That the officials of each church urge each member of each church to give at least ten cents per month for missions, Home and Foreign, Shaw University, and the Oxford Orphanage. That will adequately, (if every Baptist did in N. C.) support the total program of the Baptist Convention of churches. That would mean, the church with one hundred members will raise $10.00 per month or $120.00 per year. Furthermore, the 10,000 members of this Wake Association on a basis of 10c per month would raise and give to the objectives this Body of churches, $1000 per month.

LET US rise up, and GUIDE OURSELVES like men, be strong and do more for God's cause.

13. That churches of the Association be divided into groups. That a Key man be appointed within each group. His duty will be to work with the pastor of each church in his area, to help organize, set in motion and keep going The Religious Training and financial program of this association; working under The General Baptist Convention of N. C. ask and expect the convention to help supply workers.

15. To get the history of this Body I recommend that each church subscribe to, and support the plan the Historian may present to this Body.

15. That we increase our giving money to Shaw University and especially now, the School of Religion that needs money as never before. Each church and each member, should put into your budget each year a sum of money for Shaw and pay it.

16. That we REPRESENT into the Lott Carey Convention to the strength of our ability by delegation.

17. That pastors and other devout Christians encourage worthy young men to give themselves wholeheartedly to Christ and pray that He may use them to carry his message to a lost world.

18. The Woman's Auxiliary is doing a good work, reaching through the local church in the Mission Circle. May I urge each pastor and the entire official staff of the church, to see that a Mission Circle is in your church at work.

(a) Nurse and Nuture the B.T.U. The Training Department of the church. Keep it going.

19. That this Body meet in Extra Session in the early spring of 1961 in some church to which we may be invited to go.

That this Body will earnestly strive to reach the following budget for the next Associational year:

Shaw University	$ 2,500.00
State Missions	1,200.00
Foreign Missions	1,000.00
Oxford Orphanage	500.00
Student Aid to Shaw	300.00
Church Building Fund and Pastors	300.00
Association Operation	200.00
TOTAL	$ 6,000.00

21. That a copy of what each church pastor and laymen gives to the Association, be sent to the Executive Secretary's office for publicaiton.

22. That the churches give their pastor an annual vacation, thus giving him time for rest and self improvement.

23. That this Body will discourage the practice of taking collections at funerals, but will encourage the family of the deceased person to arrange to pay the minister for his service otherwise. That more orderly services be realized at the funeral services.

24. That all churches hold periodic teacher training classes in order that teachers may be better able to meet the needs of their pupils.

25. That all churches will seek the advice of This Association when their pulpit becomes vacant, before calling a pastor.

(a) That all churches will select their pastor for an indefinite period. Thus avoid confusion and politics in the church.

26. That all pastors and ministers who are not pastoring churches, deacons and other laymen of the church; yea, all persons who have studied AT Shaw give a personal donation as large as possible to Shaw University for the School of Religion on or by September 26th.

(a) That all churches of this association observe the month of September, 1960, as Shaw month. Raise what money we can and send it to The President's office in the name of your church and put Wake Association in parenthesis.

That the Association and Sunday School Convention continue their efforts of Leadership Training together at a time and place when practical.

Thanking you for the support that you have given through your association, to extend the borders of God's Kingdom; and praying that the guiding influence of the Holy Spirit may ever lead you.

GEO. S. STOKES, Moderator

Following the Moderator's Address we had statements and reports from our historian, Reverend T. A. Watkins, who stated that according to the returns submitted, we have over 10,000 members in our bounds. He further stated that only about one fourth of our membership attend our church schools. Our property valuation is worth over one and a half million dollars.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

The morning session opened at 10:00 o'clock with devotions led by the Reverend Isaac Lee and Millard Jones. Several selections were sung, "Something Within," "What A Fellowship," "O How I Love Jesus." The panel discussion which began on the previous day was then continued by Reverend Ward who discussed further "Christian Love and Church Finance."

Reverend D. N. Howard made some pertinent contributions to the discussion.

At this time Dr. O. L. Sherrill, executive secretary, of the General Baptist Convention came forward and brought the morning sermon. He thanked the association for their support to Christian missions the past year. He stated that he was grateful but not satisfied."

He then announced his text from the 6th chapter of Deuteronomy and the 21st verse. "Then thou shalt say unto thy son, we were Pharoah's bondsmen in Egypt and the Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand," his subject was "Brought Out to Bring In." The speaker gave a brief history of how Joseph was brought into Egypt and of the high esteem in which he was held by the Egyptian Authorities, but he said, there arose a Pharoah who knew not Joseph; and his lot, along with all of his ancestors, became burdensome. He further said that God speaks. He said, that some people who cried for a new day in the beginning decided later that they wanted to go back to the old "flesh pots" in Egypt. There were those who were not willing to pay the price of freedom. Reverend Sherrill further stated that the conditions in the wilderness were "good enough." He concluded his messsage by saying that there were stalwart souls like Caleb and Joshua who said that we are well able to possess the land. The speaker brought us an inspiring message.

The Reverend T. H. Brooks, Superintendent of Oxford Orphanage brought us greetings from that institution and thanked the Association for its support. He further stated that during this year $67.000 worth of renovations had been made and a total of 150 boys and girls are presently being cared for at the Institution. Two of the major problems facing the Institution are the expense to maintain the physical plant and to keep up with present day standards.

Our visitors were presented at this time. They were Reverend E. H. Hause, of Free Will Baptist Church and Mrs. Moyer.

The association adjourned for lunch. The benediction was pronounced by Reverend Parks.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The final session of the Wake Association convened at 2:00 P.M. With congregational singing.

The last sermon was brought by the Reverend N. A. Trice, pastor of the First Missionary Baptist Church, Fuquay Springs, who chose for his text the first verse of first Psalm — "Blessed is the man that walketh not in the council of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful." His subject was "The Way of the Righteous."

After a most enjoyable message the Reverend Essie Henry led in singing "I am going to sit down by the Bank of the River."

The offering of $20.00 was then lifted by the Reverends J. A. Barnes and A. M. Wiggins.

Because of an urgent request for additional help for our school, a motion prevailed that a special meeting be held on the 3rd Sunday afternoon in September, 1960.

At this time committee reports were given. (See Reports).

The Association closed with the benediction by Reverend N. A. Trice to meet next with the Springfield Baptist Church, Auburn, North Carolina, August 16-17, 1961.
